SUPPORT OVER 20 CHARITIES IN FORT WORTH:

The Greatest Gift Catalog Ever provides resources for the needy in one concise publication providing power through knowledge - the knowledge of who needs help and how you can best meet that need. Besides creating, publishing, and distributing approximately 70,000 catalogs, they also provide a comprehensive communications platform for their organizations, including TV media, local print media, social media, billboards, events, street banners, radio station support, yard signs and fast food tray liners. In addition, they provide philanthropy education programs where we work with local students about needs in their community and ways that they can make a difference. The staff of The Greatest Gift Catalog Ever also speaks to local boards and community groups on behalf of our organizations to leverage donations and foster lasting relationships between the two.
